The rest of the committee was voted-in, in block

Army Benevolent Race Day Haydock Park

Another good day out "At The Races" 26 members and friends attended and some people even won on the horses. The Royal Artillery Band were there along with a good display of military stands. We will be doing this event again next year on Saturday 24th May 2020. Derek will take names and a non-returnable deposit of £5-00 to book a place on the coach

Armed Services Weekend 28th-30th June Blackpool

A great weekend with 18 members and wives attending. The Gala Dinner on Friday night in the Norbreck Castle Hotel was a great success.

The Parade on Sunday involved over 300 on the march past with The Veterans showing the Regulars how to march. Ex S/Sgt Steve Thomas lead the Mechanised Division on his mobility scooter, Well Done Steve

A big Thank You to Derek. Who organised the event from his sick bed, recovering after his operation for a new hip

Garden Party 2019

The annual garden party this year will take place in the grounds of 234 Sqn. RLC Army Reserve Centre Birkenhead on Sunday 28th July 2019. Entertainment will be Pixies Disco and a duet of singers. The Deputy Mayor of Wirral, will be in attendance. A BBQ style buffet will be included all for the price of £12-00 per ticket. All cheques should be made payable to "RASC & RCT Association Birkenhead Branch" and sent to our treasurer Mr Derek Mulvihill 70, Pemberton Road, Birkenhead. CH49 8ED

Donations towards the raffle would be welcome.

Help is required with the erecting of tents etc. on the Thursday, Friday or Saturday prior to the event and Monday after, to help clearing etc. so please keep all dates available if possible.

LAST POST

Sadly we lost one of our members. Mr. George Thompson died suddenly in May. George was a regular attendee at our monthly meetings and a good supporter of all our functions. Condolences to his wife Brenda and family. George will be sadly missed R.I.P
